GRANITEVILLE.

Division No. 3, A. O. H., will hold a Hibernian fair in Miles' hall, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening, May 3, 4 and 5. The fair will open Thursday evening with a lecture by the Hon. E. J. Slattery of South Framingham, Mass. The subject will be "Ancient Order of Hibernians, Past Present and Prospective Future." The Hon. E. J. Slattery is one of the best orators in New England, and his ability to handle this subject cannot be questioned. He has held several important offices in this order and is at present national lecturer of the order. Mr. Slattery has also served two terms as state senator in Massachusetts and was the candidate for lieutenant governor on the Democratic ticket in 1903. It was only after considerable effort on the part of the committee and no little sacrifice on Mr. Slattery's part, that he decided to come to Graniteville. This entertaining lecture alone is worth more than the price of admission, and is an excellent opportunity for the people of this vicinity to listen to Mr. Slattery.

Friday evening the Modern Woodmen of America degree men of Maple Leaf Camp will give an exhibition drill and it is sure to be interesting. On Saturday evening will be the closing of the fair, and the numerous articles will be drawn for those holding the lucky numbers. There will be dancing each evening, and music will be furnished by Prof. Elmore of Montpelier. There will also be numerous articles for sale and an excellent time is assured for all. Admission ten cents.

To Rent Until Paid For.

Our annual sale of second-hand organs is now in progress. These organs have been thoroughly overhauled and are in first-class condition, and each is warranted for five years. We have the Crown, Taber, Estey, Carpenter, Packard, Smith-American, Shounger, and several other makes, at prices ranging from $15 to $60. Terms are $5 down and $2 per month. Stool and book with each organ. Write at once for full description and prices. McKannon Bros. & Co., No. 45 Church street, Burlington, Vt.

Notice.

Willard G. Smith, who during an absence of 30 years from this his native place, has repaired and adjusted sewing machines of all kinds in factories, for all branches of manufacturing in central New York, and over 700 machines in Burlington, Vt., since his return, will repair machines at your homes, in Barre and vicinity, making an old machine run like a new one—at no pay. Address or leave word at No. 50 Averill street.

Warning to Boys.

Chief of Police Brown hereby warns boys that they must not set fires and play ball in the streets. If they do they will be arrested.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, postmaster at River-ton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all his money, according to his letter, which says: "For twenty years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow, when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters, which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for biliousness, neuralgia, weakness and all stomach, liver, kidney and bladder derangements. A wonderful tonic. At the Red Cross Pharmacy, 50 cents.

For the Experience Social.

Make no engagement for May day Tuesday, but come to the Universalist Experience Social, afternoon and evening. Everyone invited from all churches. In the afternoon all will bring their work for an old fashioned quilt. To those who are strangers not only in our church but all denominations will be welcomed and get acquainted. The committee have planned in this way to meet all strangers, for it is almost impossible for a busy housewife to call on everyone. In the evening you will listen to the experiences and hear how easy it is to earn a dollar, when you put your shoulder to the wheel and push. Supper will be served from 5 to 7. Menu: French fried potatoes, cold pork and dressing, hot rolls, potato salad, salad, olives and pickles, assorted cake, tea and coffee. A supper ticket will be given to those who bring their dollar. Remember the dinner, May 8th at eight o'clock. The concert will be of the best talent possible. It is to be hoped that the public generally, will aid them in their endeavors to help to raise funds, to clear of the heavy expenditure on the repairing of their basement which was flooded some time ago. Programme will be announced later. Admission, adult 15 cents; children 10 cents. Tickets may be had from Alex. Hanton, Peter Mutch, Ed. Keast, G. Phillips, Miss Darby, May Walker, Annie Stewart, Miss Crow, Miss Murphy, A. A. Smith and Bro., and members of the board of trustees.

Neil Burgess Sure.

How is it done? Neil Burgess' horse race is a revelation in stage mechanism. He is the sole inventor and patentee in this country and Europe of this wonderful effect. The horses have to gallop to retain their positions, for the track lies away from them. Each horse has revolving section of the stage under his immediate control and the speed of the same is regulated so as to bring the favorite in first. Each of these sections weighs a ton and a half and they are so constructed as to resist the striking power of almost four tons. Neil Burgess himself will be with the company this season and will be seen at every performance in his delightful character study of "Aunt Abby." Tickets tonight at Red Cross Pharmacy.

W. C. T. U. Space.

This space belongs to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and they are responsible for what they print.

"Mourn for the thousands slain,
The youthful and the strong;
Mourn for the wine-cup's fearful reign,
And the deluded throng."

"Mourn for the ruined soul—
Eternal life and light
Lost by the fiery, maddening bowl,
And turned to hopeless night."

"Mourn for the lost—but pray,
Pray to our God above,
To break the fell destroyer's sway,
And show His saving love."

We are often reminded, as we view the want of progress in temperance reforms, of what the aged brother said when in his hearing a temperance orator invoked the divine lightning upon the pestiferous saloon—"God has lightning enough, but what he wants in work like this is conductors." If more people were magnetized with the higher, purer meanings and ideals of Christianity, if more church members gave themselves to be charged with the electric inspiration of God unto salvation, the saloons and other breeding-places of social ills would soon feel the overburning shock.

IS THE APPEAL

William Jack Writes On Library Matter

URGES ACTION BY THE CITY

Tells What an Advantage It Would Be to the Granite Industry and the Prosperity of Barre.

Mr. Editor: I again seek the privilege of your columns to say another word on the library question. The situation being briefly as stated below.

The late Leonard Aldrich bequeathed his fortune, which today amounts to between $70,000 and $80,000, to the building, equipping and maintaining a free public library in our midst. The fortune was left in the hands of a board of trustees named in Mr. Aldrich's will. These trustees are under prescribed conditions as far as the disposition of the trust is concerned, and when the institution is equipped and in operation they will have no more advantage or benefit from the library than with each and every one of us citizens. They are, however, instructed when the building fund amounts to a certain sum to proceed with the erection of the library, and as they now have at their disposal the sum of $45,000, they have had a set of plans prepared, the estimated cost of which would be within their means, should they erect a brick building, trimmed with granite.

They have been approached by a committee from the Granite Manufacturers' Association, with a request that the building be constructed of Barre granite. The town of Barre has also voted $5,000 towards the cost of the building, if it is constructed of Barre granite. This desire has been quite general throughout the city. Two individuals have offered $300 each on the same condition as the town of Barre. To accomplish this end the trustees have now had three sets of plans prepared, the interiors in each case being the same, but in spite of all this there is still a deficiency of $15,000 to accomplish the desired purpose. To raise this sum, a meeting was called to see if the city would vote this amount, the result of which it is unnecessary to repeat here.

As a citizen I have felt all along that if the people had the matter presented to them in a business-like manner and weighed it carefully, they might feel entirely different. It is true that many of us feel pretty near bankrupt on our annual appearance before the assessors, but on the other hand do not our four banks boast of deposits running up into millions of dollars? It is also true that we have already voted a fine building lot to place this library on, but would not Barre, Sohier, Barre, Graniteville or Websterville all stand willing to buy and donate the most expensive lot in their midst under similar conditions, had they but the chance? How could we do less?

Do We Appreciate the Gift?

Do we as citizens appreciate the gift by the late Mr. Aldrich? It deserves more than a passing notice. The $45,000 building fund now at the disposal of the trustees is only a part of the gift. He also gave the National Bank building, the adjoining store in the rear, as well as a valuable tract of land near the quarries, the incomes from which are to be devoted to the maintenance of the library, and at the expiration of a life interest in the valuable farm be-

THUMPING HEADACHES

Many Barre Women Have Them, But Few Know the Real Cause.

Dull, thumping headaches.
Sick, prostrating headaches.
Dizzy, whirling, blind headaches.
Point to disorders of the kidneys.
Tell of uric poisons in the blood.
Narcotics may ease the pain.
But won't cure the cause.
Doan's Kidney Pills cure the kidneys.
Remove uric poisons, purify the blood.
Banish headache, backache, urinary ills.
Here's Barre testimony to prove it.

Mrs. Annie Gibb, of 21 Brooklyn street, Barre, Vt., says: "For over a year I had more or less backache, brought on, I think, by a disordered condition of the kidneys. If I brought too much strain on the muscles of my back sharp pains would take me, and I also suffered from headaches and spells of dizziness. When I overworked or caught cold it always made the trouble worse. I read a good deal about Doan's Kidney Pills and went to E. A. Drown's drug store for a box. Before I had taken all the pills in this one box my back was relieved, and when I had finished a second box the pains had ceased and I felt better in every way. I am glad to recommend such a reliable remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills proved to be in my case."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Between here and Montpelier, that will, as well as other property, also be added.

What will this library mean to Barre? Will it not be one of the best influences for the good and uplifting of her citizens, taking rank among her schools and churches, and being free to all will it not put within the reach of those who struggle to help themselves to knowledge a means to accomplish their most commendable aspirations? Will not a chance of access to all the leading newspapers and magazines of the country in an orderly, artistic and beautiful room, nicely furnished, heated, lighted and ventilated, mean something to the hundreds who crowd our streets, many of whom are away from home influence? Will it not give to the schools and every citizen a searching turn of mind reference books galore, and when completed will it not form one of the most desirable additions to our city since its formation?

Can we as a city afford to neglect to honor ourselves and the donor of such a magnificent gift by failing to clothe it in a coat of our beautiful granite? Can we not afford to give at least twice as much as the town of Barre to bestow this gift to be planted in our midst? I tell you we can, and that we cannot any more afford to lose this chance than we can eliminate the poetical side of our natures from our lives.

It tell you it would be a good investment for us as a city to vote the amount lacking, as it would insure $30,000 worth of additional work for our stonecutters and would benefit our home industry that much, and besides we would have the finished product in the end, worth one hundred cents on every dollar of its cost. We would have a gem which would rank among buildings where our Barre monument does amongst monuments, at the time of its construction, and the name of being the most progressive city in New England of our size, we cannot afford to let this chance slip. We need this granite building to show the possibilities of our granite in that direction, and if that was properly understood it might give such an impetus to our granite industry that our heavy taxpayers would have as much difficulty in providing tenements for the newcomers as they had 75 years ago.

I say make the building of granite, and make it as beautiful as possible. Ten years from now we will all be sorry if we do not. Let us rise to the occasion and show to the world our personal feelings which we may have as to how this splendid gift is to be administered. We need other public gifts of a similar nature. We need a hospital, but if we do not show our appreciation of this, will it not convey the impression that we are ungrateful and sordid? And it will hurt our cause with others who may in the future have similar bouts of bestow.

Respectfully,
Wm. Jack.

England Has a Surplus Now.

London, May 1.—"Budget day," as usual, attracted an unusual audience in the House of Commons yesterday, and the House was full when the chancellor of the exchequer rose to introduce the first budget of the new Liberal administration. Mr. Asquith began by reviewing the past financial year, pointing out the cheering fact that the revenue was larger than the estimates, and the expenditure was smaller than the estimates. Hence the country was in the happy position of having realized a surplus of $17,533,000.
